

Environmental Policy

The Hadano Office will encourage the environmental conservation activities of its employees and contractors in consideration of their impact on the global environment in accordance with Company Rules K40.

It will design and develop products with minimal impact on the global environment, make effective use of resources and reduce its own environmental impact in compliance with laws, regulations and social commitments.

It will endeavor to promote products helpful to the conservation of the rich global environment leveraging the Company's electronic control, machining and information processing technologies.

It will help improve the Company's business through day-to-day environmental conservation activities.

It will assess the environmental impact of its business activities conducted at the Hadano Office and engage in environmental conservation activities to prevent pollution and conserve resources.

It will carry out internal audits to continuously improve its environmental performance and its environmental management system in accordance with the ISO 14001 standard.

It will push ahead with activities to preserve the global environment to be a good corporate citizen as it coexists with society.

This policy will be published outside the company.