Handling of Personal Information

In principle, you may use most of the services provided through websites run by YDK Technologies Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "YDK Technologies") or on the Internet, without disclosing your personal information. For specific services, however, you may be asked to provide your personal information, in which case YDK Technologies or our partners shall be required to keep such information confidential. Furthermore, YDK Technologies is fully aware of the importance of safeguarding the privacy of such information when handling electronic information. In some cases, YDK Technologies may subcontract the management of a specific website, whole or a part thereof, to an outside firm that YDK Technologies judges to be trustworthy. The personal information of each individual user is protected also in these cases under YDK Technologies's rules of handling personal information.

Personal information mentioned herein and defined by YDK Technologies refers to information of all kinds related to each individual person --the name, residential address, mailing address, employer's name, department name, phone number, opinions, and so on --that is electronically transmitted to YDK Technologies by users.

In order to make your website browsing more efficient or to provide follow-up services after website browsing, YDK Technologies may ask users to provide personal information in the case of:

- online user registration
- requesting catalogs
- answering questionnaires
- registering subscriptions to newsletters or the like

- ordering products or providing services
- allow user access to limited-entry areas of this website as appropriate
- other cases

YDK Technologies occasionally hires other companies to provide limited services on its behalf, including packaging, mailing and delivering purchases, answering user questions about products or services, sending postal mail and processing event registration. YDK Technologies will only provide those companies the information they need to deliver the service, and they are prohibited from using that information for any other purpose.

In all cases, YDK Technologies will expressly state why such information is necessary, so that you may provide the information at your own discretion. YDK Technologies will not disclose personal information provided by users to any party, other than YDK Technologies itself or YDK Technologies's affiliates or business partners, without prior permission from the users, except in cases where YDK Technologies provides its commissioned trader with such information necessary for a trade to be executed.

However, in cases where a settlement needs to be made for using pay services or purchasing products, YDK Technologies may exchange personal information with firms, including without limitation, financial institutions, in order to check the validity of bank accounts and/or credit cards. Likewise, YDK Technologies may disclose personal information in case such disclosure is mandatory under applicable laws or is reasonably judged to be essential in order to protect and safeguard the rights, property and safety of other users, YDK Technologies itself, and/or YDK Technologies's affiliates.

For the purpose of product development, identification of business needs, and sales promotion, YDK Technologies may use personal information, personal opinions, and the like presented by users, though such use shall be limited only to YDK Technologies itself and YDK Technologies's affiliates and business partners.

YDK Technologies will accept, to a reasonable extent, such possible user requests as making corrections or deletions to personal information presented by users.

YDK Technologies may use the IP addresses of users recorded in the system, in order to explore the cause of or solution to any problem arising in servers, or to administer its websites.

In some cases, this specific website may contain other notices about the use and the information practices applicable.

Circumstances may arise where, whether for strategic or other business reasons, YDK Technologies decides to sell, buy, merge or otherwise reorganise businesses in some countries. Such a transaction may involve the disclosure of personal information to prospective or actual purchasers, or receiving it from sellers. It is YDK Technologies's practice to seek appropriate protection for information in these types of transactions.

Please be aware that in certain circumstances, it is possible that personal information may be subject to disclosure pursuant to judicial or other government subpoenas, warrants, or order.

This website may contain links to other websites. YDK Technologies is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of those other websites.
